

I am an over the road driver and I do not want to lose my xm radio this is the best thing that has happened to radio in a long time and i feel that as long as I am paying for the service that I should be able to keep it along with the traffic and weather channells. so please leave my xm radio alone